PARIS BOOK market

4 & 5 June 2026

Since 2022, the Paris Book Market has been bringing together international acquisition editors and rights managers from French-language publishing houses. It is now the flagship event for discovering the full diversity of French-language publishing across all fields: literature, humanities and social sciences, children's books, comics, art books, and more!

FOCUS ON THE NETHERLANDS

This year, in addition to meeting rights managers from French-language publishing houses, international acquisition editors will also have the opportunity to schedule meetings with a selection of Dutch publishing professionals presenting their titles.

Don't forget to register for this unique networking opportunity for publishing professionals!
